

Name: _____

Agatha Award Novel Nominees 2019

Complete the crossword below for these Agatha Award Nominees in the categories of Best Contemporary Novel, Best Historical Novel, and Best First Novel.

Created using the Crossword Maker on TheTeachersCorner.net

Across

- Trust Me is about a grieving woman and an accused murder similar to the Casey _____ case.
- In Cry Wolf Deputy Coroner Zoe Chambers also works as a _____.
- How many funerals and maybe a wedding was Rhys Bowen writing about in her Royal Spyness Series?
- In The Gold Pawn there are two mysteries, one in New York and one on the outskirts of this Michigan city.
- In The Ladies Guide to Etiquette and Murder, the Countess Wynn was born in this country.
- In Murder on Union Square, Sarah and Frank want to _____ Catherine, a child Sarah rescued and has been raising.
- In The Kingdom of the Blind, Armand Gamache finds himself _____ of a will for a complete stranger.

Down

- In What Doesn't Kill You Willa Pennington thought becoming a PI would be easier than being a _____.
- Ellen Byron's Mardis Gras Madness would happen on Fat _____.
- In Beyond the Truth, a popular high school _____ is shot by during a robbery.
- In Deadly Solution Maeve Malloy works as a defense lawyer in this Alaskan city.
- In Turning the Tide, Rose Carroll belongs to this friendly religious organization.
- Curses Boiled Again features this wonderful New England dish.
- In Little Comfort, Hester Thursby works at this Ivy League school as a librarian.
- The Widows of Malabar Hill takes place in this city in India.

Write down the letters in the turquoise boxes here. Unscramble them to reveal this month's mystery writer and Agatha Award nominee.

Mystery Writer Hint: This Canadian author writes chilling mysteries featuring a chief inspector, but started out as a radio broadcaster for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation.

Find this and other puzzles at teresatrent.blog